

The Dissident's Republic

why we fight & how we won

There's a million ways to skin a cat. Not everyone needs to be an e-celeb.

Questions:

Background / Personal / Misconceptions

- 1.) What redpilled you? ( It's a process but what big cataclysmic things come to mind? )
- 2.) Do you hate other races? Are you a supremacist?
- 3.) What do you love? What motivates you when you wake up in the morning?
- 4.) History has shown ethnicities & loyalties change over time, and it is likely we will merge with robots. So why bother?
- 5.) What is your skillset and how did you come to the conclusion that this was the best way for you to contribute to the cause?
- 6.) Where can people go to support your work? Where should they start first to learn more about what you do?
- 7.) Want to address any criticisms or misconceptions about you?
- 8.) Movie or show recommendations?
- 9.) Music recommendations?
- 10.) Book recommendations?
- 11.) Are you ultimately whitepilled or blackpilled? Why?
- 12.) Anything else you'd like people to know? A message or suggestion? Relevant quote?

Advice / Strategy / Logistics

- 1.) Of all the redpills, which are the most crucial for normies to understand?
- 2.) Any book/movie/content suggestions for redpilling people?
- 3.) Would you say you're more of a localist or an entryist? Why?
- 4.) Assuming we win in the end, which strategies will have been most effective? How can we harmonize our approaches now?
- 5.) What advice would you give fellow travelers? ( People sympathetic to our view but not as fanatical. )
- 6.) Once we win, how can we make sure this doesn't happen again? What kind of a society do you want to live in? (Big picture)
- 7.) Logistically speaking, what can we implement to shift society back in our favor, and keep it in our favor?
- 8.) What mistakes do you see people in our milieu making? What do we do well? Where should we focus our efforts?
- 9.) To avoid endless struggle & defining ourselves by opposition to “the current thing,” what would winning look like to you?
- 10.) What are some pragmatic actionable steps /ourguys/ could take right now to shift us closer to our shared ideal vision?
- 11.) Any advice for people in “the movement” on finding their niche so they can help somehow & die with a clear conscience?
